Credit ratings fact sheet May 2023

CONTEXTUALISING INVESTEC BANK LIMITED'S RATINGS - May 2023

An overview of Investec Bank Limited

Investec Bank Limited (IBL) is the main banking subsidiary of Investec Limited (South African holding company listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange). Investec Limited owns 100% of the ordinary shares in IBL. IBL operates as a specialist bank in South Africa and Mauritius, providing a wide array of banking products and services to a niche client base, largely comprising professional private clients, high net worth individuals, mid-to-large size corporates and institutions. IBL is the fifth largest bank in South Africa, as measured in terms of size of on-balance sheet assets. The bank however, does not target the mass-retail market in the country and in the majority of its chosen niches would be a dominant player in terms of brand and market share.

Stability in IBL's ratings

A history of IBL's ratings is shown in the table below. IBL's ratings have remained stable over many years reflecting the financial soundness of the bank over a long period of time (see key financial metrics of the bank further below). Past rating adjustments have largely been associated with changes in views by the rating agencies of the credit worthiness of the South African sovereign. Adjustments in the sovereign rating of South Africa lead to an automatic adjustment in the ratings of the major banks in the country. It is generally accepted that a bank cannot have a higher rating than the sovereign of the country in which it operates, unless it is largely foreign-owned and the foreign holding company is domiciled in a country with a higher rating than South Africa.

CURRENT RATINGS AND PEER GROUP RATINGS COMPARISON

Rating definitions: Short-term ratings should be used for investments with a one-year or less time horizon and long-term ratings for periods greater than a year. Foreign currency ratings should be used when one is considering foreign-denominated investments. Investments in Rand should be assessed against local currency and national ratings, (zaf) being Fitch's notation and .za for Moody's, Standard & Poor's and GCR notation for South African ratings.

Note: Comparative ratings have been sourced from the respective company websites and recent press releases as at 17 May 2023 and may be subject to changes for which we cannot be held accountable. It is advisable to discuss the ratings of the various companies with the companies themselves, as this information merely reflects our interpretation thereof.

Further peer group information

On a stand-alone basis (i.e. looking at the financial strength of the Big 5 banks, excluding assumptions around Sovereign support) there is very little differential between the key risk metrics of the Big 5 banks as depicted in the graphs on the following page.

IBL remains highly liquid and is a net provider of funds to the interbank market in South Africa. Investec has a conservative approach to liquidity, which has been in place for many years. As at 31 March 2023, the bank had R171.4 billion of cash and near cash balances on its balance sheet. IBL (consolidated) had a liquidity coverage ratio (LCR) of 153.6% as of 31 March 2023.

IBL holds capital in excess of regulatory requirements and Board approved minimums, and intends to perpetuate this philosophy to ensure that it remains well capitalised. IBL is not a highly geared bank. A number of banks that have experienced difficulty in the past were in excess of 40 times geared. IBL's gearing ratio at 31 March 2023 was 12.0x times.
