

Global reach
Local knowledge

Name: Bongiwe Dube

Highest Qualification: LLB

Having attained her BProc and LLB degrees from the University of the Natal, Bongiwe served and completed her articles at University of Natal Law Clinic, and was admitted as an attorney of the High Court of South Africa.

Bongiwe has spent 15 years in the corporate environment in various roles. As a contract manager, she provided support to the procurement, sales and delivery teams to companies such as FNB and Accenture. While at Accenture, Bongiwe headed the Women's Forum for her region which included South Africa, Portugal and Mauritius. Her Accenture clients included mobile telephone operators, financial institutions, retail institutions etc. She has also worked as a legal advisor for companies such as T-Systems South Africa (primarily providing support to sales and management, and reporting to both the local and international Finance and Legal team, RMB Private Bank and Absa (providing support to Absa Africa, Corporate and Investment Banking, Technology, Wealth, Investment Management and Insurance (WIMI) and the regional offices). At Absa she was tasked with dealing with the South African Reserve Bank (SARB) as part of the Cloud Sub-Committee. She gained international experience while working in London at Ealing Women's Aid where she was responsible for the management committee (directors) where she was tasked with recruiting and training the committee members on their fiduciary responsibilities; and addressing Companies House requirements in relation to the management committee.

She currently serves as Internal Legal Counsel for TMF Corporate Services.