Product description

The Investec Private Select Fund is a 40-day notice deposit with an interest rate that approximates the average of the top 4 qualifying<sup>1</sup> money market funds' published rates, at Investec's discretion, and provides a liquidity percentage of 10%.

Definitions

- "account balance" means the total capital invested in the account at any given time, and constitutes the balance on which interest is earned
- "breakage costs" means all costs, losses, liabilities, damages, charges or expenses as determined by Investec, together with an amount equal to any VAT (if applicable) and any other applicable taxes thereon which Investec incurs or suffers as a result of any early withdrawal from or closure of the account (including, but not limited to, the unwinding, termination or modification, in whole or in part, of any funding or hedge position in relation thereto)
- "encumbrance" means a hold placed on funds that have been reserved or have not yet cleared
- "immediately available balance" means the funds that are available immediately in the account without you having to place notice, subject to notices placed and/or encumbrances. It is determined by the liquidity percentage, and is recalculated after each transaction, subject to any withdrawals already made within the applicable notice period
- "liquidity percentage" means the percentage of the account balance used to calculate the maximum immediately available balance. This percentage is 10%
- "notice balance" means funds that are available for notice to be placed (including the immediately available balance), subject to any encumbrances and/or notices placed
- "notice due date" means the date on which a notice instruction matures and the credit to the settlement account is processed
- "notice maturity date" means the end of the notice period and the date on which funds under notice become available
- "notice period" means the agreed/committed term after giving notice withdrawal instructions for all, or a portion of, the funds to become available
- "notice placed" means that there is a pending notice withdrawal instruction to withdraw either all, or a portion of, the account balance
- "notice withdrawal instruction" means providing Investec with notice of your intention to withdraw funds

- "Private Select Fund rate" means an interest rate which approximates the performance of the average of the top 4 qualifying<sup>1</sup> money market funds' published rates
- "settlement account" means the account into which all withdrawals will be paid
- "variance limit" means a limit of no less than 0.25% above or below the average interest rate of all the qualifying<sup>1</sup> money market funds
- "volatility event" means an event where the observed interest rate within a fund on any given day is 0.25% above or below the funds own prior 10 day average rate where there has not been a commensurate interest rate change in the published South African interest rates

General

The Investec Private Select Fund combines the following benefits:

- A competitive money market fund linked interest rate
- Liquidity percentage – you have 10% instant access on cleared funds (40 days' notice is required to withdraw amounts exceeding the liquidity percentage)
- The liquidity percentage available is based on a 40-day cycle following your last withdrawal of the immediately available balance

Interest rates

- The interest rate applied to the Investec Private Select Fund is tiered and is calculated on the account balance
- The interest rate applicable to the Investec Private Select Fund is money market linked and is calculated on the average of the top 4 performing money market funds selected from a basket of qualifying<sup>1</sup> money market funds, subject to the variance limit

ACCOUNT BALANCE	INTEREST EARNED (NACM)
< R1 000 000	Private Select Fund rate less 1.25%
≥ R1 000 000	Private Select Fund rate
Funds in excess of product limits	Private Select Fund rate less 1%

* All rates are quoted on a nominal annual compounded monthly basis.

**Product limits as per table below

Please refer to the deposit rates published daily.

- Interest accrues daily and can either be compounded monthly or transferred to a designated bank account. If interest is compounded, it is regarded as an additional deposit and will increase both the immediately available balance and the available notice balance
- If interest is transferred to a designated bank account, it is done so on the first business day of the following month and is not regarded as an immediate withdrawal
- Investec reserves the right to amend the fixed differential to the applicable calculated qualifying<sup>1</sup> money market fund rate on your account with notice to you<sup>2</sup>
- A money market fund may be excluded from the qualifying basket of funds, where the fund has been subject to a volatility event
- Below are the qualifying criteria that the Investec Private Select
- Fund pricing is derived from:
  - South African retail money market funds
  - A fund size of R10 billion or more
  - Less than 25% invested in corporate debt

Deposits

- Minimum initial deposit is R1 000 000
- Additional deposits can be made at any time
- Additional deposits will immediately increase the account balance but may not necessarily increase the immediately available balance

Withdrawals

- The early withdrawal of funds in excess of the immediately available balance and/or the termination of the account, are at Investec's sole discretion.
- There are two types of withdrawals which are allowed on the account and that are not considered early withdrawals:
- Immediate withdrawal: Withdrawals from the account without notice being required. Funds are withdrawn from the immediately available balance, if available
- Notice withdrawal: Withdrawals from the account after the 40-day notice period has passed

Notice period

- You can elect to have the funds transferred at a date later than the notice due date, subject to the rules relating to placing notice stated below
- If the notice due date falls on a non-business day, the transaction will be processed on the next business day thereafter
- If notice is placed on the full account balance and you are not closing the account, the funds will be transferred on the notice due date, excluding accrued interest and any deposits made after notice has been placed
- Pending notices placed can be cancelled up to two days prior to the notice due date

- Investec will not backdate transactions in the event that you did not provide settlement account details on the notice due date
- Multiple notices can be placed on the account to mature at different dates, subject to notice balances being available
